Thirty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time 15th November 2020

"As the man of God lifted the host a little from the altar and blessed it before pronouncing the solemn words which would convert it into the Body of Christ, the cleric saw in the same instant a little Child, very small but of Divine and entrancing beauty, resting in the Bishop's hands. He burst into tears, and adored the Infant-God, who thus manifested His Real Presence in the Mystery of the Altar. The apparition was renewed a second time when the Sacred Host was raised again, just before the fraction which precedes the Communion. In this elevation also," says the Magna Vita (an older book on the life of St Hugh), "he beheld, under the same image as before, the Son of the Most High, born of the Virgin, offering Himself to His Father for the salvation of men." This is an extract from H. Thurston's book on the life of Saint Hugh of Lincoln. He writes about the witness of a young cleric of Saint Hugh's Eucharistic Miracle at the Holy Mass.

It's been a year since we have had the icon of Saint Hugh in the Church. It's been a year like no other, and yet, as we come to celebrate the Feast of our most beloved Patron, we have a lot to give thanks. Our Parish might seem to be decimated, but it's only scattered. People have been extremely devoted to prayer, attending online services, looking after each other and reaching out to the poor and needy. And the way that we have handled the coming back to Church has been a joy to witness. With the highlights being our celebration of Baptisms, Holy Communion and Confirmations and two weddings. We have had more funerals and that's been hard not to celebrate them in the manner that is befitting a Christian with the sacrifice of the Mass.

But as St Paul says in Hebrews 4:12 'For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.'

Let's celebrate the Feast of St Hugh with a renewed heart and bring our life, our pains, our joys, our hopes and our Parish through the intercession of St Hugh to help us in seeing the mysteries of Christ at the Altar and all parts of Life.

De Profundis

A prayer of a sinner, trusting in the mercies of God the sixth penitential psalm(129).

Traditionally used to pray for the Holy Souls:

Out of the depths I have cried unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication. If thou, O Lord, shalt mark our iniquities: O Lord, who can abide it? For with thee there is mercy: and by reason of thy law I have waited on thee, O Lord. My soul hath waited on His Word: my soul hath hoped in the Lord. From the morning watch even unto night: let Israel hope in the Lord. For with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

V. Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray; O God, the creator and redeemer of all the faithful; grant to the souls of thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that by our devout supplications they may obtain that pardon which they have always desired. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.
