

St Hugh of Lincoln Catholic Church

Borrowing an analogy from biology, we could say that imprinted upon his “genome”, the human being bears a profound mark of the Trinity, of God as Love.

Pope-Emeritus Benedict XVI

The Most Holy Trinity - 30th May 2021 Year B The Year of St Joseph

Next weekend we honour the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, with the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which has been transferred from the first Thursday after Trinity Sunday to the Sunday of the following week. This means that each June Corpus Christi processions have, once again, become a feature of the life of many parishes, including our own, permitting us to grow in our love and knowledge for Christ in the most Blessed Sacrament, but also showing the public something of what it means to be a Catholic.

A eucharistic procession, therefore, is a public witness of the veneration towards the most holy Eucharist, conducted through public streets. It takes place in this way: A consecrated host that is, the real and substantial presence of Jesus Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity is placed within a monstrance, which is then lifted and carried by a priest who leads the faithful in procession. Like a pilgrimage, a eucharistic procession normally starts at one holy place and ends at another. This earthly journey reminds us of our spiritual journey towards eternal life with God. We also throw ourselves at the feet of Our Lord, recalling the actions of the crowds on the first Palm Sunday, offering prayers, words of praise and thanksgiving, and atonement for our sins and those of the whole world, for an end to diseases and for protection and reparation committed against Jesus. We pray also for any onlookers and our village. It's also time to be joyful. We will have a procession at 6pm on Saturday, the 5th of June with Vespers. Please join me and bring petals for the procession and we will have Benediction after the 10am Mass on Sunday.

In Jesus, Mary and JosephFr Gerard.

This prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus comes from St John Cardinal Henry Newman, a renowned 19th century convert to Catholicism from Anglicanism who wrote extensively about our faith. He was beatified by Pope Benedict XVI in September, 2010 and canonized by Pope Francis in October, 2019. On his coat of arms when he became Cardinal in 1879 the phrase "Heart speaks unto heart", reflecting his desires expressed beautifully below:

Most Sacred, most loving Heart of Jesus, You are concealed in the Holy Eucharist, And You beat for us still. Now, as then, You say: "With desire I have desired."
I worship You with all my best love and awe, With fervent affection,
With my most subdued, most resolved will. For a while You take up Your abode within me.
O make my heart beat with Your Heart! Purify it of all that is earthly,
All that is proud and sensual, All that is hard and cruel, Of all perversity,
Of all disorder, Of all deadness. So fill it with You, That neither the events of the day,
Nor the circumstances of the time, May have the power to ruffle it;
But that in Your love and Your fear, It may have peace.
