

St Hugh of Lincoln Catholic Church

“May the Heart of Jesus, in the Most Blessed Sacrament, be praised, adored, and loved, with grateful affection, at every moment, in all the tabernacles of the world, even to the end of time.”

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - 13th June 2021
The Year of St Joseph

Ordinary Time is the time after the Epiphany, and then Pentecost, and all the other mysteries which we have remembered. Now we need the time and space to live it out as it is the time during which we can grow closer to the Lord and deepen our spiritual lives. This Sunday is the first time we see the church decked in green. Let's look at five things we can practice to get the most out of our observance of Ordinary Time. These are things we can do any time, but let's use them to renew our commitment to Christ throughout the year.

1. Surrender to Christ - There is nothing we can do to be saved or to progress in the spiritual life except through Christ. Begin each new day by surrendering yourself to Him and His Will. Replace the habit of pride with the practice of humility, trusting in the Lord.
2. Enter into and remain in a State of Grace - We can make no progress in the spiritual life if we are not in a state of sanctifying grace. Those who believed and were baptised were freed of sin and its eternal punishment. They were justified by Christ's grace and said to be in a state of sanctifying grace. If they have not knowingly and freely committed a mortal sin, they remain so. If you are not in a state of sanctifying grace, you need to be. If you are not baptised, seek to be baptised in the Catholic Church. If you are baptised, but have committed a mortal sin, that sin needs to be confessed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
3. Develop a habit of daily prayer - If we love someone, we desire to be with that person. The same is true if we love God. Prayer is how we spend time with God. As we commit to daily prayers of Adoration, Petition, Intercession, Thanksgiving and Praise. We call that mental prayer and then also you can choose liturgy prayers, such as the Divine Office, also devotions, such as the Rosary, and Novenas.
4. Ponder on the Sunday Mass Readings - Spend time each week prayerfully reading and thinking about the coming Sunday's Mass readings; what they mean and how they apply to your life. The Magnificat is a wonderful publication to help you do this.
5. Be Christ to others - Jesus Christ came not to be served, but to serve. He calls His followers to do the same. We cannot claim to follow Christ if we do not serve those people He places in our daily lives. Service always requires us to be Christ to those around us, but we are also called to serve those we do not easily recognize or identify with. In what way can you help others? Who can you serve? How do we reach out to really help others? St. Gianna Molla says "The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment and to thank God for all that He, in His goodness, sends to us day after day."

This prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus comes from St John Cardinal Henry Newman, a renowned 19th century convert to Catholicism from Anglicanism who wrote extensively about our faith. He was beatified by Pope Benedict XVI in September, 2010 and canonized by Pope Francis in October, 2019. On his coat of arms when he became Cardinal in 1879 the phrase "Heart speaks unto heart", reflecting his desires expressed beautifully below:

Most Sacred, most loving Heart of Jesus, You are concealed in the Holy Eucharist, And You beat for us still. Now, as then, You say: "With desire I have desired."

I worship You with all my best love and awe, With fervent affection, With my most subdued, most resolved will. For a while You take up Your abode within me.

O make my heart beat with Your Heart! Purify it of all that is earthly, All that is proud and sensual, All that is hard and cruel, Of all perversity, Of all disorder, Of all deadness. So fill it with You, That neither the events of the day, Nor the circumstances of the time, May have the power to ruffle it; But that in Your love and Your fear, It may have peace.
