

St Hugh of Lincoln Catholic Church

The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of Our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is older. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - 4th July 2021
The Year of St Joseph

Dear Friends

All of us are conscious that we may not be too far off the further lifting of restrictions and the way in which all our parish community has responded to the limitations of this last year and more, has been wonderful.

I very much hope that it will be possible to share good news before too long and assure you that further updates will be sent out as quickly as possible. We will return to the Saturday Vigil Mass and three Masses on Sunday as follows:

Saturday 6.00pm Vigil
Sunday 8.00am (Latin)
9.30am
11.30am

The extra Mass will provide us with extra space, but also the Latin Mass has proved popular.

Thank you to all who have helped and served during this time. Getting back to our schedule doesn't mean that life is normal; life has changed and we will be starting again in many respects. In order to do that we do need your help; we need volunteer Welcomers, Sacristans, Readers and Catechists. This is also a chance to see with fresh eyes the faith of our parish and to let it grow. We will think about this and I will talk about it in September.

We also need to look at bringing the community together, to have some social time together and fun!

Be assured of my prayers and there are exciting times ahead.

In Jesus, Mary and JosephFr Gerard

Precious Blood Prayer

Saint Catherine of Siena

O sweet Jesus, my Love, to strengthen my soul and to rescue it from the weakness into which it has fallen, You have built a wall around it, and have mixed the mortar with Your blood, confirming my soul and uniting it to the sweet will and charity of God!

Just as lime mixed with water is placed between stones to cement them together, so You, O God, have placed between Your creature and Yourself, the Blood of Your only-begotten Son, cemented with the divine lime of the fire of ardent charity, in such a way that there is no Blood without fire, nor fire without Blood.

Your Blood was shed, O Christ, by the fire of love! Amen.
