Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 'Sea Sunday'
11th July 2021 - The Year of St Joseph

Dear Friends

Earlier in the year Pope Francis established a day to honour grandparents and the elderly to take place each year in July, close to the feast of the grandparents of Jesus, Saints Joachim and Anne. He said the "Holy Spirit ... arouses thoughts and words of wisdom in the elderly today: their voice is precious because it sings the praises of God and guards the roots of peoples. They remind us that old age is a gift and that grandparents are the link between generations, to transmit to young people an experience of life and faith," he went on to say "Grandparents are often forgotten and we forget this wealth of preserving and passing on the roots. For this reason, I have decided to establish the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly." This year it will take place on Sunday 25th July and Pope Francis will offer Holy Mass to mark the occasion, according to the Vatican Dicastery for Laity, Family, and Life.

In my own experience, grandparents have no agenda; they simply want the best for their grandchildren and their children. For their grandchildren especially, they want them to be good, decent human beings, to hand on to them a moral compass to know the difference between right and wrong, able to make good moral decisions and, if they go astray along the way, to be able to find their way back to a loving, forgiving, God as He judges differently.

Grandparents have a vital contribution to the Family, the Church and Society, never more, as now, is that needed. We are living in unprecedented times, with constantly changing social and moral values. Times of great emotional, physical and financial stress. Sometimes we feel like we are failing and the pressure of not seeing our families or helping, has made us feel low. We can never fail so long as we keep on doing what we are doing by praying, being present, showing the way and passing on Jesus and the faith. As grandparents you can answer questions about the Catholic faith that your children can't because they might not be practising and we, the Church, are here to help you.

On the weekend of 25th July we will bless grandparents.

In Jesus, Mary and JosephFr Gerard

From Saturday July 24th we hope to resume the 6pm Vigil Mass; the last Sunday 5pm Mass will, therefore, be on Sunday July 18th. However, we await further guidance from the Diocese regarding the new arrangements for our churches post July 19th, to ensure that we keep everyone as safe as possible. From July 25th, the requirement for Mass Bookings will continue for the 10am Sunday Mass only, with the deadline for booking of 3pm on the Friday. For all other Masses, to register your Mass attendance, please use the QR Code for the NHS Track and Trace App, which is in the Narthex. After the summer break, we hope to resume the Sunday Masses at 8am (Latin), 9.30am and 11.30am, as detailed last week.

Precious Blood Prayer

Saint Catherine of Siena

O sweet Jesus, my Love, to strengthen my soul and to rescue it from the weakness into which it has fallen, You have built a wall around it, and have mixed the mortar with Your blood, confirming my soul and uniting it to the sweet will and charity of God!

Just as lime mixed with water is placed between stones to cement them together, so You, O God, have placed between Your creature and Yourself, the Blood of Your only-begotten Son, cemented with the divine lime of the fire of ardent charity, in such a way that there is no Blood without fire, nor fire without Blood.

Your Blood was shed, O Christ, by the fire of love! Amen.
